

Lancy C. Jen Scholarship

In honor of Lancy C. Jen, her family has established this scholarship to carry on her legacy as a dedicated educator. The scholarship annual award is $4,000.

Applications are invited from undergraduate students who are majoring in Women's Studies at Portland State University and who are incorporating mathematics and/or sciences in their educational program and/or career goals.

Students are encouraged to meet with faculty members Johanna Brenner or Ann Mussey in the Women's Studies Department to discuss how their program of study and goals might fit the criteria of this award.

Criteria for selection among eligible applicants are academic achievement/potential and financial need

Applications will include:

All your college level transcripts. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable.

A personal statement (500-800 words) describing your personal and intellectual goals as a Women's Studies major, how your course of study fits the criteria of the scholarship, your long-term career goals.

A brief (500 word) statement that honestly describes your economic situation. [This might include information such as: how you are paying for your education, amount of loan debt you expect to acquire, people you are responsible for, other financial responsibilities you have.]

Two letters of recommendation from faculty members who can speak knowledgeably about your academic achievements and potential.

Applications are due in the Women's Studies Office (469 NH) at 4:00 p.m. Friday, May 6, 2005.
